Fast Find:
A System for Searching Public Health Trainings

Northwest Center for Public Health Practice
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

Certificate Programs and Institutes

We offer three intensive training opportunities for public health professionals:

- Summer Institute for Public Health Practice,
- Northwest Public Health Leadership Institute, and
- Public Health Management Certificate.

www.nwcphp.org

Exercises and Drills

Our online exercises and drills focus on areas such as emergency preparedness and bioterrorism to infectious disease and immunizations.

In-person Training

We provide more than 15 in-person trainings, ranging from program planning and evaluation to environmental health and communication.

Online Courses

We offer over 30 online courses on topics such as epidemiology, leadership and management, and business planning.

Toolkits and Guides

Our downloadable toolkits and guides cover a wide array of topics, including adult learning and effective presentations.

Webinars

We provide a variety of webinars, including our monthly Hot Topics series. Choose from over 125 webinars focusing on topics such as maternal and child health, chronic disease, and accreditation.